

THE HAYTI HERALD.

VOL. 4.

HAYTI, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1911.

NO. 3.

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES.

Any district may calculate the amount due them from the state school fund by multiplying the number of children enumerated by $1.81. Next term this apportionment will be based on the attendance of the present school term.

Under the new state aid law, sums ranging from $10 to $80, and amounting in all to $20,552, were given to weak districts over the state. Pemiscot county did not have a single one of these weak districts. Texas county led with 39.

For the first quarter Steele reports an enrollment of 206, attendance averaging 151. This shows the attendance to be 75% of the enrollment. With the exception of Braggadocio, which also has a per cent of 75, this is the highest of any rural school yet reported. The attendance of all the schools reported averaging 61% of the enrollment. Canady is the lowest with a per cent of 45.

The following statement was made by Superintendent Evans: County certificates issued prior to January 1, 1912 are not subject to renewal after that date, but are valid only for the life of the certificate, since that date section 10912, R. S. ceases to be a law, and there is therefore no authority for the renewal of such certificate, except that section 10942, Session Act 1911, provides "that any teacher who has had five years experience in teaching and is employed as a teacher at the time of taking effect of this act shall have his or her county certificate renewed an unlimited number of times on condition that said teacher continue in the same position (in the employ of the same board) and is faithful in the performance of his or her professional duties." Teachers should either secure normal or state certificates before the expiration of their certificates, or prepare themselves for the examinations.

ENDORSE JUDGE FARIS.

The friends of Hon. C. B. Faris, of Pemiscot county, our able Circuit Court Judge are engaged just now in urging him to become a candidate for the democratic nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court in 1912. There are three to be elected next November, and it is eminently proper and right that one of them should be from Southeast Missouri. The papers from this part of the state believe Judge Faris' high reputation as a great lawyer and jurist, makes him our logical candidate. He is eminently qualified for the seat on the woolstack of the highest court in Missouri—the peer of any man in the state—and it is certain that he would be a strong candidate. —New Madrid Record.

PRINTER WANTED—For special job of straight composition and light, short run press work. Job will last about two months and may be permanent to right man. Write before you come, stating wages. No tramps, bums or boozers. Job now open.

A. Fields came over from Hornbeak, Tenn., on Wednesday of last week, and returned the next day with his son, John, and family, who moved there to make their future home. We regret to lose such good citizens, and will have a good place picked out for them when they return.

D. Sorrell, living near town, was badly dog bitten early Friday morning, but no serious complications are contemplated. A stray dog came to his place and was bothering his chickens and stock, and he went out to drive the dog away. It attacked him, getting him down and biting his arm.

F. M. Perkins attended to business in Cairo, Ill., this week, making the round trip on the magnificent passenger steamer, Wenona, of the Collar Line Packet Company, on her initial trip between Caruthersville and Cairo, Ill.

L. M. Hawkins of the North Arkansas Lumber Co., manager of the Paragould, Ark. branch, was in Hayti and Caruthersville attending to business matters the latter part of last week.

TOM HUTSON HURT.

A. T. Hutson, car repairer for the Frisco, narrowly escaped death Friday morning, by a log falling off of a log train and rolling completely over him, crushing one ankle, bruising his head considerably and causing some internal injuries. He was carried to the hospital in St. Louis on the noon train, accompanied by Dr. T. J. Trautmann, arriving there safely, and is getting along as well as could be expected. Mrs. Hutson, accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Gibson, went up Saturday to remain with him. The cause of the accident was in clearing up a small wreck, where the log car and another car had been jammed together. Mr. Hutson was standing by the side of the log car, and when the engine moved the forward car, the top log loosened and rolled off, with the above results.

Do not forget to renew your subscription for another year. It is impossible for us or our collector to see every one. Try to be prompt. We want your name to remain on our books, but unless we hear from you we must necessarily conclude that you do not want the paper, and mark you name off of our book. We do not want to force the paper on any one who does not want it.

Wm. Gunn of Concord, was in our office Saturday, and informed us that his son-in-law, Albert Stacey, was found in the woods near Kennett on Tuesday of last week, in an unconscious condition, from a blow or lick of some kind on the head. It seems Mr. Stacey cannot recall how he became hurt.

E. S. Fuller, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, happened to a very painful accident Sunday morning, out at his farm near town. He was in his back, preparing to remove some feed from some of his hogs, when the team became frightened, causing him to either fall or jump, breaking his leg at the ankle. He is getting along nicely however.

John Pool, a bustling merchant of Foust, was in town Tuesday and reports business very good at Foust. Mr. Pool left an order with the Herald for some large posters advertising a big 10-days bargain sale.

Chas. Graham, who is passenger collector between Blytheville and Jonesboro, came up Sunday to visit his wife, who has been ill for several days.

MOVED TO C-VILLE.

Leo Greenwell and family left Monday night for Caruthersville, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Greenwell resigned the position as cashier of the Citizens Bank in this city to accept a position as general freight and passenger agent for the Collar Line Steamers, plying between Caruthersville and Cairo, Ill. Leo, as he is familiarly called, has the best wishes of his many friends in Hayti in his new undertaking.

Judge E. L. Davis of near Braggadocio was on our streets Saturday, and had a good word to say for the Herald. Judge has just bought and is improving a 300 acre tract of land near town, on the Braggadocio road. He will build three houses on the road, and soon have a nice, up-to-date farm. He is also contemplating the purchase of other nearby land.

This week we are compelled to mark several names from our subscription list. If you do not receive the Herald, and want it, kindly pay up all back subscription and renew for another year. We always give ample time and notice before removing a name, but if you don't let us hear from you your name will surely be removed.

R. A. Speed is one of our new subscribers, and informs us that he has bought a small place in the suburbs of Jonesboro, Ark., where he will locate in the near future. Better stay with us, Dick. Remember how it is when a man tries to leave old Pemiscot.

H. P. Coleman of Long Beach Calif., one of the large land owners of the lower end of the county, was in Hayti Tuesday, shaking hands with old friends and attending to business matters. He will return to California next week.

When writing for a newspaper, no matter of what nature, whether news, advertising, write on one side of the paper only. Printers never look on but one side of copy, and it is very annoying to have to turn copy over.

Mrs. Shirley Snyder has been at Blytheville for several days, on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Kittle Walker.

Mrs. A. T. Hutson returned from St. Louis Monday, and reports that her husband is getting along nicely.

COLLECTS $1,000.00

Bruce Stark, attorney-at-law of the law firm of Kelley & Stark, of St. Louis, was here Thursday, Friday and Saturday, looking after legal business. While here he compromised the case of C. W. Tull against The Southeast Missouri Telephone Co., for the death of his 16-year old daughter, which was caused by her being tripped by a down wire. Lawyer Von Mayes represented Mr. Tull, and effected a compromise for $1,000.

Miss Ethel Porskins visited friends in Braggadocio this week as the guest of Ben Phillips' nieces.

SPORT HUMES IN TOILS.

Constable Ed Juden went up to Black Island on Wednesday of last week to arrest Sport Humes for disturbing the peace, and, incidentally, to carry him down to Caruthersville under a charge of breaking out of the city jail at that place not long ago. When Sport gets out of the toils in Caruthersville, Hayti has a charge against him, and our city officers should meet him at the door and bring him to Hayti. A few good doses will make him more respectful.

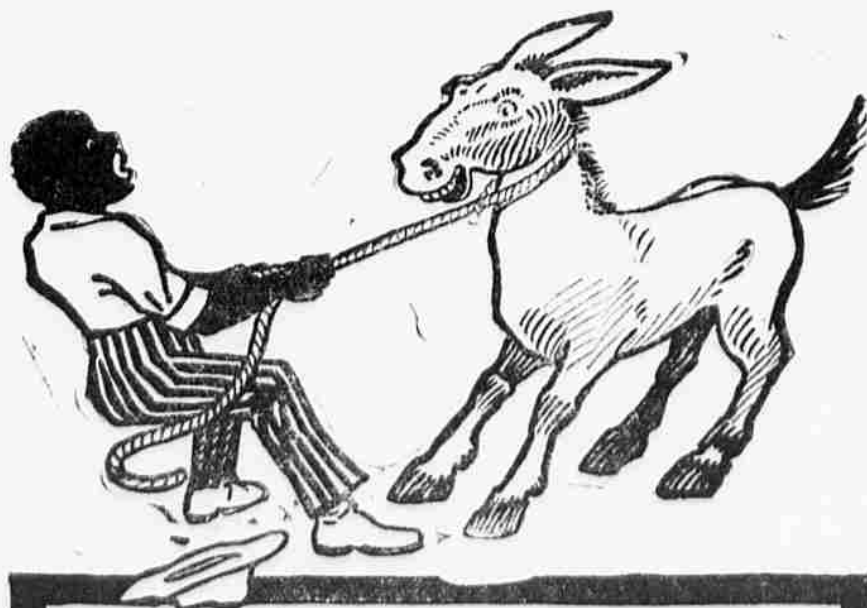

Miss Carrie Richmond was reported on the sick list the first of the week.
